OUR BEST INNOVATIVE, IMAGINATIVE & DARING TANNERIES AT LINEAPELLE

Acepxiel, the Spanish Tanners Association proudly announces their participation at this latest edition of Lineapelle with twenty premium associate companies.

Held in Milano from 4th to 6th October (incl), Mrs Anna Garcia, director for Acexpiel is proud to see the rise in the number of Spanish tanneries (associates and non-members) who have chosen this international fair to showcase their latest premium collections, with important innovative finishes for the footwear and small leather goods industry.

Emphasising on the Spanish Tanners (Acexpiel) members, visitors can enjoy from the versatility of rabbit plates to the exoticism of python. The unmistakable attributes of Merino lamb, Entrefino to daring and great imaginative finishes for domestic bovine are also represented by leading Spanish companies, many of whom are today closely related to international fashion brands, who have seen in these SMEs a professional management team, highly experienced technicians and investment in R&D which, together with their concern for the environment and their stakeholders, as the key values for sustainable and socially responsible enterprises.

The Spanish Tanners members are spread throughout Pavilions 9, 11, 13 and 15. Under the association umbrella, we invite you to enjoy a great journey which will take you from the classics, to the most daring and imaginative leathers available today on the international market.
