SPANISH PARTICIPATION AT APLF 2017

Acepxiel, the Spanish Tanners Association will be present at the 2017 edition of Asia Pacific's leading leather and materials fair APLF. Held from 29th to 31st March at the iconic Exhibition Centre which overlooks Hong Kong Harbour, a small yet powerfully representation of the Spanish leather industry will be showcasing collections which have allowed these companies to partner with some of the most exclusive global fashion luxury brands.

A collection of creativity and inspiration, Curtidos Badia, Combalia, Verdeveleno, Inpelsa, Morera Pell, Inter Leather, Casas I Fills and Riba Guixà look forward to presenting their Spring/Summer 2018 proposals to their customers and visitors in Hong Kong.

From premium-quality raw materials offered by Casas i Fills - one of Catalonia's leading enterprises when it comes to supplying domestic and foreign tanneries with the best Spanish hides - to Verdeveleno, a Spanish leading tanner when it comes to exotic leathers (python and crocodile) whom partner up with their customers to design and manufacture bespoke collections that become the desire of fashion specialists.

Curtidos Badia, Morera Pell and Combalia, Riba Guixà and Inter Leather are all located in Catalonia, which today represents over 50% of the total tanning industry of Spain and are all specialized in manufacturing premium leathers for the footwear, small leather goods and fashion industry.

Verdeveleno and Inpelsa, are both located in the province of Valencia and enjoy historic links to the international fashion industry through their distinctive focus on innovation, quality and partnerships.

All the Spanish companies participating under the wide umbrella of Acexpiel have different individual priorities long term, although they do enjoy common denominators, such as quality, investment in innovation, research, development and effective partnerships, all our members are Leaving aside the quality of their articles and the importance of effective partnerships, they are all focusing on implementing advances in their socially responsible activities, not just complying with the legal requirements, but are adapting their cultures to include sustainability and social corporate responsibilities.
