

PRESS RELEASE

“PERFECTING THE CLASSIC”

A new edition of Première Vision Leather with a highly representative number of Spanish Tanners most recognized companies opens this show that opens its doors on 19th September and shall, for three consecutive days, showcase some of the best leathers manufactured in the Mediterranean nation. Perfecting the Classic is the motto under which thirteen tanneries will be showcasing their Fall/Winter 19-20 collections in Hall 3 of the Paris Nord Villepinte exhibition center, the cradle of leather fashion for the garment industry.

The Spanish Tanners, true to their beliefs, their art and their passion for leather, which, in the last two decades have incorporated innovation, technology, originality and avant garde perspectives to quality and craftsmanship, for which Spanish leathers are globally recognized.

Sourcing for decades the fashion industry, the Spanish Tanners have become indisputable partners with some of the world's most famous designers and brands. Together they have taken steps to perfecting and innovating such a natural material which is leather.

The thirteen companies that will be showcasing their fall/winter collections, and these - as we have already seen this year - are forerunners in merging traditional practices, technology and innovation whilst ensuring they maintain within their values, their sustainability and ethical approach philosophy, reason whilst today these companies continue to maintain leadership positions in a world which is built around the natural attributes of leathers.

Sustainability, environmental, diversity, naturalness, technology and technique, creativity, passionate and bold ... together with an incredible colour palette and endless specialized finishes can be found in all of the collections which the professional visitors can enjoy whilst visiting the Spanish participating companies.

The Spanish Tanner association – Acexpiel/Spanish Tanners – would like to welcome you to visit the stands of Aqpel, Curtidos Badia, Curtidos Bassols, Curtidos Lajara, FC Creació, G. Estilo, Goldepele, Griñon Furs, Group Miret Export, Inpelsa, Inter Leather, La Doma and Riba Guixa in Hall 3 and enjoy the new collections that respond to the parameters of the design world season autumn winter 19/20.
